January 21-27, 2019

Monday: Psalm 145 Praise God through this Psalm, finding His greatness and goodness in your life.

Tuesday: Song of Solomon 4:1-8 Reflect on the beauty God has placed before you in His creation. Don't see the dirt that has darkened the snow. See the pristine white of the freshly fallen snow and marvel at what beauty God has created. Then marvel at the beauty of you that God created, too.

Wednesday: Luke 5:33-39 Reflect on what God is making new in you, asking for the strength to let the old go.

Thursday: Isaiah 61:1-7 Reflect on where the Spirit of God is moving in you, accepting His deliverance and going forward in His Spirit.

Friday: Galatians 1:11-24 Reflect on what God is calling you toward. Put aside your past mistakes, hear God's call, and trust that God will equip you to follow His call.

Saturday: Luke 2:39-52 Reflect on what you are searching for, and be reminded where that answer can be found.

Sunday: Luke 4:14-21 Sound familiar? Go back to Thursday's reading in Isaiah. The Scripture has been fulfilled; continue to reflect on God's Spirit in your life.
