Giving up Enemies

April 1-7, 2019

Monday: Psalm 89:1-3 Reflect on loving your enemies, praying for the strength that can only come from God.

Tuesday: Acts 10:34-43 Reflect on what Jesus has modeled in Scripture and where you see God's healing in the world today. Pray for eyes that not only see healing that needs to happen, but also where God is already working His healing.

Wednesday: Giving up Enemies Romans 12:17-21 Reflect on these verses today. Live peaceably with all; Overcome evil with good; etc. My righteous indignation demands vengeance; my desire to honor God demands giving up that vengeance for God. Pray that your desire to honor God will quell your demand for vengeance.

Thursday: Matthew 4:43-47 God gives us some tall orders every day. Today, give up the regular way of living and spend time in prayer for those who you are not fond of, who persecute you, who throw up barriers to your way of life, asking God's blessings on them.

Friday: Luke 19:37-44 Reflect on what Jesus weeps over in your life, praying for His mercy and asking for help to recognize God's Spirit in your life.

Saturday: Romans 5:1-8 Pray in thanksgiving that God looks past our flaws and still loves us enough to sacrifice Christ to bring us back into His righteousness.

Sunday: Luke 6:26-36 We greatly appreciate God's mercy, but do we afford a measure of mercy to others? Reflect and pray on how you can extend God's mercy in your life and pour it into others.
