As we journey through Holy Week and enter the Joy that comes on Easter morning, reflect on the incomprehensible love of God displayed through the suffering, death, and resurrection of Christ.

April 15-21, 2019

Monday: John 3:14-21 Reflect on your history, OUR history. Reflect on what you have learned about God's steadfast love of HIS creation and how he redeems YOU. Pray in thanksgiving that every morning is Easter morning.

Tuesday: 2 Corinthians 5:14-15 Reflect on the new life Christ has given YOU. Pray in thanksgiving that every morning is Easter morning.

Wednesday: Matthew 26:26-30 Reflect on the beginning of the end that brings us back to the beginning of new life. Sit in peace knowing that this joy turns to sorrow, then turns back to joy. Pray in thanksgiving that every morning is Easter morning.

Thursday: Maundy Thursday John 13:1-17, 31-35 Reflect on the pain and sorrow of the betrayal of Jesus, but also the redemption and joy that happens because of God's incomprehensible love. Pray in thanksgiving that every morning is Easter morning.

Friday: Good Friday John 18:1-19:42 Continue to reflect on the pain and sorrow of the betrayal of Jesus, but also the redemption and joy that happens because of God's incomprehensible love. Pray in thanksgiving that every morning is Easter morning.

Saturday: Easter Vigil John 20:1-18 Begin to emerge from all the pain and sorrow you have held these last two days of remembrance of the betrayal of Jesus, and begin to fully live into the redemption and joy of God's incomprehensible love. Pray in thanksgiving that every morning is Easter morning.

Sunday: Easter Sunday: He is Risen! He is Risen Indeed! Alleluia!! Luke 24:1-12 Today is the perfect day to immerse yourself in God's incomprehensible love! Notice the beauty of His creation. Notice the intense and beautiful colors of this world. Immerse yourself in the love of family, friends, and community. Pray in thanksgiving that every morning is Easter morning.
